

- f. Defendant has the right to confront the witnesses against him and to cross examine any witness who gives testimony against him at trial;
- g. Defendant has the right to present witnesses on his own behalf and to subpoena witnesses for that purpose;
- h. Defendant has the right to appeal from any conviction if he is found guilty at trial; and
- i. Defendant has the right to appear and be present before a judge to be advised of the foregoing rights, the charge or charges against him, the maximum and minimum penalties that could be imposed upon conviction, and any mandatory and non-mandatory assessments that could be imposed upon conviction.

6. Defendant further states that he understands each and every one of the above-stated rights.

7. Defendant acknowledges by pleading Guilty or No Contest to the above charges(s), that he is giving up all of the rights enumerated above, and is subjecting himself to sentencing by the Court. Defendant further acknowledges and understands that a plea of "Nolo Contendere" or "No Contest" has the same legal effect as a plea of Guilty, and may only be entered with consent of the Court.

8. Defendant hereby waives a hearing on any additional motions which may or could have been heard in this case.

9. Defendant has discussed his case with his attorney, Sky D Phifer, at length, and is satisfied with that legal representation. Defendant acknowledges that he fully understands the nature of the charge against him as well as the Plea Agreement he has entered into with the State of Wyoming.

10. The plea bargain entered into with the State provides as follows:

- 1. Defendant will plead guilty to with a violation of W.S. § 35-7-1031, possession of marijuana.
- 2. The court, without entering a judgment of guilt and with the consent of the Defendant, will defer further proceedings under § 35-7-1037, and place the Defendant on probation upon terms and conditions.

11. Defendant has been further advised that the Court is not a party to the Plea Agreement in this matter, and that the Court may reject the Plea Agreement.

12. Defendant has also been advised that in the event the Court rejects the Plea Agreement, Defendant will be allowed to withdraw his plea of Guilty, and the matter will be set for trial.

13. Defendant further understands that if the Court accepts his voluntary plea of Guilty, he has only limited rights of appeal as set forth below:

- a. Defendant may appeal an illegal sentence;
- b. Defendant may appeal a sentence which violates a Constitutional Right not specifically waived; and
- c. Defendant may appeal lack of subject matter jurisdiction by the Court.

14. Defendant hereby specifically states that he understands each and every right he is entitled to, and the consequences of entering a plea of Guilty or No Contest herein, and that he
